Dear Norbert,

We apologize for the long response. Timada's Diary's editorial staff has been overwhelmed with connections to a writing contest for high school students.

We nominated your King's Tale for Best of the Net and are very grateful that you informed us of this opportunity.

Sincerely,
Aarilym

Aarilym:

May I ask which stories and poems from Timada's Diary you decided to nominate for Best of the Net, the awards anthology I wrote you about in August? I am always curious to know which ones my editors wind up choosing.

Respectfully,

Norbert Kovacs
